A STORY OF HARDSHIP.

Peary's Terrible Experiences in the Frozen North.

OBLIGED TO KILL DOGS FOR FOOD.

For Thirty-six Hours Precious to the Return to Their Lodge Peary and His Two Companions Were Without Food—The Explorer Completely Disheartened.

ST JOHN'S, Nfld., Sept. 23.—The Peary relief steamer Kite arrived Saturday afternoon, bringing Lieutenant Robert E Peary, Hugh Lee and Matthew Henson safe home.

The Peary expedition party endured much hardship last winter, but started northward again in April in an attempt to make a new record. The succeeded in reaching Independence bay, where they camped.

The explorers were unable to make any pronounced advance northward, owing to the weakness of the party, both Lee and Henson being exhausted. A number of the dogs died from a plague common among them. The Kite reached Peary's headquarters Aug. 3 and started to return on Sept. 1. They spent the intervening time exploring in the interests of the Greenland scientific expedition. Messrs. Diebitsch, Salisbury, Dyche, Le Boutillier and Walsh, who were on board, surveyed many miles of unknown coasts.

They also discovered two large meteorites, which they brought home, and another, weighing forty tons, which it was impossible to take away. They also found it impossible to bring home Peary's house.

Many specimens of deer, walrus and northern animals and birds, flowers and lichens were secured, but the captures were not as extensive as had been expected, owing to the time for exploring being cut short in the hurry to return.

The story of Lieutenant Peary's latest trip is one of greatest hardship. Waiting for the cessation of the March equinotical gales, they started from headquarters April 1, three men, five sledges and forty-nine dogs. Within seven days they reached the proximity of the all precious cache of food on which the success of the journey depended. Peary had cached it last year for the express purpose of utilizing it this spring. Disappointment, however, greeted them, as the most persistent and careful search failed to find it. Last winter's snows had obliterated every trace of it. With this terrible damper at their first start the three still dared to venture into the unknown.

It meant hardship, privation, possibly death, but they would not retreat. Shortening their rations they began their terrible journey. The sufferings they endured few can tell. The party of three men was inadequate to face this wilderness, and this was proven when Lee gave up through sheer exhaustion and lay down to die. His faithful companions drew him on a sledge for 150 miles till Independence bay was reached, where permanent camp was formed and the sufferer treated till he recovered.

Peary was, however, powerless to make any new discoveries. He dared not venture ture alone on the ice and land masses extending north beyond the range of vision. A few miles of coast exploration to the northward, in the direction where a jutting cape forms Lockwood's highest point, 82.34, reached in 1883, forms the solitary achievement, and, dispirited and baffled, Peary turned his face homeward. During the stay on the coast eight musk oxen were shot, and their flesh, enabling the pemmican stores to be kept for the return, saved the three explorers from a miserable death from hunger on that vast inland sea of ice.

They started back on June 15, and after a week's travel Lee again showed signs of weakness. They pushed on at top speed, but food for the dogs was likewise unobtainable, and it speedily became a case of the survival of the fittest. The weaker dogs were slaughtered that the others might live and help their master along. As the stores were consumed and dogs decreased the sledges were abandoned. Then Lee had again to take his place in a sledge and the others to drag his weakened form along. Soon it became a struggle for very existance. Every ounce of impediments was discarded. The sledges dwindled to two, the dogs to fifteen.

The rifles were next abandoned, then the scientific instruments, wind gauges, etc., which could be dispensed with, until at last only one sledge, a few pounds of food and five dogs remained.

As home grew nearer, while food was vanishing, they abandoned their last sledge, and with one solitary dog, the lone survivor of the pack, faced the last twenty miles of this awful journey. It occupied them thirty-six hours, during which time not one morsel of food touched their lips. When they entered their comfortable lodge, doubly dear after what they had come through, Lee fainted from sheer joy and was four hours unconscious. To show how desperate was their condition Peary abandoned even their nautical almanac, tearing out the three leaves of declinations for the days they expected to be occupying in reaching headquarters.

The party were taken on board the Kite on the evening of Aug. 4. Lieutenat Peary is completely disheartened, as shown by a remark to his brother-in-law, Diebitsch: "Everything I have put my hand to the past two years has been a failure."

Not since the gruesome story of Greely's men has such a story of misery, endurance and triumph over death itself been made public, but the Kite's crew tell more gruesome stories still. They say the three men, to prolong their own lives, had to eat their dogs at the last, and the one who survives now owed his life to being Peary's pet, a companion on a former journey. Peary's scientific records will doubtless be advantageous to scientists, but would ill repay such desperate risks.

Will Contest Her Husband's Will.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—Relative to a dispatch from San Francisco, dated June 9, concerning the will of J. A. Ford, which cut his widow off without a dollar, Mrs. Ford and her son Edward have called upon Vice Consul General Shropshire here and have made an emphatic denial of the accusations advanced. The widow declares that she is determined to contest the will and fight for her rights. When these are established she proposes to give her son the whole of the fortune. Edward Ford supports his mother's claims.

Extradited from Colombia.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—A. C. Love, the Texas postoffice forger arrived at Quarantine at midnight on the steamer Advance, in charge of United States Marshall J. C. Renfrew, of Calvert, Tex., who went down to Panama to secure his man. Love escaped from this country about four months ago and was hiding in Colombia. He was discovered and extradited promptly.

Severe Snow Storm in Wyoming.

RAWLINS, Wyo., Sept 23.—This section of Wyoming was visited by the worst September snow storm for twenty years. There is a foot of snow on the levels. Trains are delayed. Some fears are entertained, should the weather continue cold very long, for belated flocks of sheep, which are still on high mountains.

Cholera's Increase in Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 23.—Cholera is increasing here, and in the vicinity of Broussa, about fifty-seven miles southeast of here, it is raging violently.

VICTORIOUS AMERICANS.

They Defeat the English Athletes in Every Event.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The greatest international athletic meeting ever held in this country took place at Manhattan field Saturday afternoon. It was a battle royal between the pick of the London and the New York Athletic clubs. It was witnessed by 10,000 spectators, who saw American after American cross the winning line ahead of their English rivals. Not an event did the Americans lose. In the half mile run, 220 yards dash, 120 yards hurdle race and running high jump new world's records were created.

The winners were: Half mile run: Charles Kilpatrick; time, 1 min., 53 2-5 secs. Hundred yards dash: Bernard J. Wefers; time, 9 4-5 secs. Running high jump: M. F. Sweeney; cleared the bar at 6 ft., 5¾ in. One mile run: T. P. Conneff: time, 4 min., 18 1-5 secs. Two hundred and twenty yards dash: B. J. Wefers; time, 21 2-5 secs. Putting sixteen pound shot: George R. Gray; distance, 43 ft., 5 in. One hundred and twenty yards hurdle race: Stephen Chase; time, 17 2-5 secs. Throwing sixteen pound hammer: James S. Mitchell; distance, 137 ft., 5½ in. Quarter mile run: T. J. Burke; time, 49 secs. Running broad jump: E. P. Bloss; distance, 22 ft. 6 in. Three mile run: T. P Connell; time, 15 min., 35¼ secs.

Her Hair Stolen Why She Slept.

NELIGH, Neb., Sept. 23.—This city has been the scene of one of the most peculiar crimes in the history of this state, and there is no clew to the identity of the perpetrator. The entire family of W. O. Brown have been worn out with watching at the bedside of a sick child, and when an opportunity offered slept more soundly than usual. When Miss Jennie Brown awoke she discovered that during the night some one who had come in through the window had cut off her hair, which had been the envy of all the women in the town. One half of it was gone, the thief evidently being afraid to disturb her sufficiently to procure the portion from the other side of her head.

Leading Salvation Army Officer Dead.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Mrs. Colonel Eadie, wife of Colonel W. O. Eadie, second in command of the Salvation Army of the United States, died yesterday at her home in Jersey City, of pulmonary consumption. When General Booth was in Brooklyn, nearly a year ago, Mrs. Eadie caught cold at one of the meetings which developed into consumption, but she continued in her work until compelled to succumb. She had been in the army about fifteen years, serving in Great Britain, Canada and the United States. She was born in England, and came to this country in May, 1894, to take the position of chief secretary in the United States.

Train Robbers Convicted.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Sept. 23.—The trial of the Blackstone train robbers, "Buz" Lucky and James Dyer, in the United States court here, has resulted in their conviction. Dyer was an organizer of outlaw bands and planned more successful train robberies than any other man in America. All of the larger jobs of the Starr and Chaney gangs had their origin in Dyer's brain. The Bentonville bank robbery, the Caney, Kan., bank robbery, the M., K. & T. train robbery at Prior Creek and Blackstone, and the K., A. & A. train robbery at Coweta were some of his works. Dyer's chances are good for forty-five years in the penitentiary.

Strike Rioters Sent to Jail.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Sept. 23.—Mike Metro and John Puncholly, the leaders of the mob of Italians charged with threatening riot in the case any of the strikers returned to work at Oliver, had a hearing and were remanded to jail. The prosecutor, George Kish, claims that when he resumed work Metro and Puncholly attacked him and threatened his life. One of them drew a knife and threatened to cut his throat. The same mob threw another workman into the creek, almost drowning him. The perpetrators of this crime have not yet been arrested.

No Wind for the Half Raters.

CENTRE ISLAND, N. Y., Sept. 23.—The first race of the best three out of five in the match between the half raters, Spruce IV, representing the Minima Yacht club, of England, the challenger, and Ethelwynn, the representative of the Indian Harbor Yacht club, the defender, which was begun on Saturday, was not a success, because there was so little wind that the contestants could not make the course within the limit of five hours, and on that account the race was nullified by the race committee. The race will be sailed over again.

Tried to Destroy His Eyesight.

AUBURN, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Oliver Curtis Perry, the train robber, in some manner procured two needles, which he placed in a stick in such a way that when he placed the stick across his nose he prodded his eyes. His optics are now badly inflamed, and it is only by administering anesthetics that the prison physician is able to give treatment, as Perry obstinately refuses to yield. He says that if he succeeded in blinding himself the governor might be convinced that he meant to reform, and might extend clemency.

Ishpeming Strikers Surrender.

ISHPEMING, Mich., Sept. 23.—The wind up of the iron miners' strike came Saturday, when it was agreed to officially declare the strike off. It was an unconditional surrender. The men will accept the terms of the company, and will go to work with the militia present to see that there is no disturbance. They go back without recognition of their union, and all they get out of the strike is a raise they might have had seven weeks ago.

Preaching Intervention for Cuba.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—The Rev. Dr. H. M. Thomas caused somewhat of a sensation by declaring from his pulpit that the time has come for America to say that the oppression of Cuba by Spain must come to an end. There was a large attendance of the best people in the city, and the speaker was frequently interrupted by outbursts of applause.

THE NEW CHALLENGER.

He Will Not Object to a Contest Near New York City.

UNDISMAYED BY DUNRAVEN'S ACT.

Mr. Rose Will Make No Stipulations as to Where Next Year's Races Shall be Sailed. Sir George Newnes Also Ready to Build a Challenger.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The town residence of Mr. Rose, who has challenged the New York Yacht club for a race for the America's cup, is a beautiful house on Hill street. There a reporter of the Associated Press saw him last night. Mr. Rose is a tall athletic looking man, about 40 years of age, with a bronzed face. He was asked for particulars regarding his challenge for the America's cup, and replied:

"Yes, I am going to challenge for the cup. I have sent a preliminary message to the secretary of the New York Yacht club, and I have communicated with Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan. The formal challenge will go through the Royal Victoria Yacht club next week as soon as the designer and I shall have the dimensions of the yachts as to the build and other particulars which is necessary to incorporate in the challenge. The yacht will be designed by Soper, and it will be built at Fay's yard in Southampton. I can give you no further particulars, as they are not settled yet.

"Shall you make it a condition that the races for the America's cup must be held elsewhere than in the vicinity of New York?" was asked.

"Certainly not," replied Mr. Rose. "I shall make no conditions, though of course I am most anxious that the races shall be held where there will be no chance of interference, and I have no doubt that the New York committee feel the same way."

"It was feared," observed the interviewer, "that the recent fiasco would prevent any Englishman from challenging again."

"Oh, no," said Mr. Rose, "the affair is regretted on both sides. A certain amount of friction is inseperable from all international sporting contests, but that will not deter us from trying again."

The wealthy gentleman mentioned by The Field as being prepared to build a cutter to challenge for the cup in 1896, provided the New York Yacht club would consent to sail the matches in waters the yacht could not be interfered with, is now announced to be Sir George Newnes. Sir George Newnes has sat for the Newmarket division of Cambridgeshire since 1885 until the late general election as a Liberal, when he was defeated by Mr. Henry McCalmont, who is himself an enthusiastic yachtsman, and is said to be half owner of Valkyrie III. Sir George Newnes is the proprietor of several popular serial publications, including Tid Bits, the Strand Magazine and the Westminster Gazette, which is one of the English newspapers which has not hesitated to criticize Lord Dunraven for his action in withdrawing from the third race for the America's cup.

Valkyrie's Challenge to Defender.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The secretary of the Royal Yacht squadron writes to the bankink firm of Laycock, Goodfellow & Bell that he has cabled their offer of £1,000 for a race between Defender and Valkyrie III. in other than American waters, to the New York Yacht club, but that he fears it is too late in the season to arrange the match.

Seriously Hurt in a Runaway.

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 23.—N. P. Mervine, one of the leading lawyers of Blair county, was seriously injured in a driving accident. Mr. Mervine, with his family, was driving through Brush mountain, when his horses ran away at breakneck speed. Mr. Mervine brought the animals to a stop long enough for his wife and children to safely alight, but in the effort he was drawn over the dashboard and kicked and trampled upon by the horses. He is suffering from concussion of the brain several teeth were knocked out and he was otherwise severely injured.

Death of Ex-Congressman Stewart.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 23.—Ex-Congressman Charles Stewart, of Houston, died in the Santa Rose hospital here Saturday. He was born in Memphis, Tenn., in 1836. He was elected to congress from the First district to the Forty-ninth congress, and served until March 4, 1894, he having declined a re-election at the preceding election.

Terrific Storm at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 23.—A terrific storm swept over the city last night, the wind reaching a velocity of fifty miles an hour. A number of trees and small sheds were blown down, but no serious damage was done. In the state at large a number of accidents are reported. Many telegraph wires are down.

Lynched by a Louisiana Mob.

HAMMOND, La., Sept 23.—William H Smith, colored, who on the morning of Sept. 12 entered the caboose and murdered Tiny Podone, the banana agent on the Illinois Central railroad, at Amite City, was taken from the officers Saturday night by a mob and lynched.

Another Defeat for the Hovas.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—Advices from Mojanga say that General Duchesne has surprised 6,000 Hovas in the Tsmainoudry defile. The Hovas were routed and eighty of them killed.

Light Sentence for a Murderer.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 23.—For the second time in the history of this county, criminal court was held on Sunday. The jury in the case of Van Parvin, charged with the murder of James Dorman, which had been out since Saturday night, reported last evening. Judge Green was sent for and court convened just as the church bells were ringing for service. The jury found Parvin guilty of murder, and he was sentenced to six and a half years in the penitentiary.

THE WAR IN CUBA.

Sentenced to Life Imprisonment for Giving Aid to Insurgents.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The Havana correspondent of The Times telegraphs that paper as follows, under date of Sept. 18:

On Saturday last the harbor police of Havana, while watching a suspicious boat alongside the American steamer Mascotte, saw a sack dropped into a boat. Upon arresting the boatman they opened the sack and found it full of rifle cartridges. They boarded the steamer, and the master immediately granted permission to search the vessel. It was discovered that the Spanish fireman was the person who dropped the sack. The fireman and boatman were tried by court martial, found guilty of supplying ammunition to the insurgents, and convicted to penal servitude for life. It is stated in Havana that the insurgents regularly receive supplies of cartridges by similar means.

Lengthy telegrams from Madrid state positively that Spain will send further 25,000 men in October and an equal number in January, and if necessary they are prepared to increase the army in Cuba to 200,000. Campos is right in saying that he does not want more men. What clearly is necessary is that the soldiers have more training and the army more method of organization, and, above all, more competent direction is needed if a satisfactory result is wished.

La Discussion (newspaper) last week published an account of a fifteen days' march by General Mella and 3,000 men through the province of Puerto Principe for the purpose of attacking Maximo Gomez. The only result was a few unimtant skirmishes. The account reads like the story of Don Quixote, rather than a serious warlike action.

Would-be Lynchers Foiled.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 23.—Two attempts were made yesterday by mobs to capture Harrison Fuller and Frank Simpson, both negroes, who were the cause of an attack upon the Lexington jail some nights ago. At Lexington a mob of citizens held up a train bound for Camden, where it was supposed the negroes had been taken for safekeeping, and forced the conductor to carry them to Hollow Creek. Here they attempted to bulldoze a Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis conductor to take them to Camden. He threatened them with the consequence of holding up a mail train, and the mob got off. Some, however, paid their way to Camden and found the negroes were not there. They have not yet located the prisoners. These are the same negroes who were threatened with lynching at Lexington early last week, and who fired on the attacking mob, killing and wounding several members.

Three Drowned While Bathing.

MANASQUAN, N. J., Sept. 23.—Three people were drowned while bathing in the surf here Saturday, and the fourth member of the party was rescued with great difficulty. The latter was Mrs. Fisk, wife of a druggist doing business in Jersey City. Two of those drowned were young ladies, Miss Earle and Miss Brown. William Fisk, 19 years old, son of the rescued woman, was the third who perished. The tide was on the ebb, and a strong undertow was running. Young Fisk waded out and was swept seaward. His mother started out after him, and she, too, was caught by the tide, when the two younger women made an attempt to rescue their companions, and were drowned.

Cooler Weather Promised.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, yesterday gave out the following weather bulletin: The hot wave will be broken some time tomorrow, probably in the afternoon in Chicago, St. Louis and in the states of the upper Mississippi valley, central Mississippi valley, upper lake region and eastern Minnesota. A decided and sudden fall in the temperature of not less than 30 degs. will be ushered in by heavy thunder storms and rain, followed by several days of cool weather.

Two West Virginia Murders.

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 23.—Two sensational murders in Wood county, near Parkersburg, have caused much excitement in that vicinity. In the town of Waverly, Thomas P. Harness, a prominent and wealthy farmer, stabbed and killed Mark Perry, a negro boy aged 20 years. At a dance two miles from Lubeck Henry Cavony shot Albert E. Burd through the heart, killing him instantly. The row was the result of a feud.

New York's Torrid Sunday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The official thermometer of the weather bureau yesterday recorded the highest temperature ever taken by the department on Sept. 22 in this city. At 4 o'clock the thermometer registered 96 degs. The mean temperature for the day was 86 degs., which is 22 degs. above the normal for Sept. 22. The humidity was low, however, their being only 49 per cent. of moisture in the atmosphere.

Vienna Police and Workmen Fight.

VIENNA, Sept. 23.—At a demonstration by 8,000 workmen in favor of universal suffrage held here serious collisions occurred with the police, and twenty-six arrests were made.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

Intense heat at St Louis has brought the aged Archbishop Kenrick near to death.

Owing to the awful smoke in that town it is said the population of Pittsburg is decreasing.

Nearly the entire state of Colorado is covered by snow. At Greeley the snow was fourteen inches deep.

Luzerne (Pa.) county jail, built to house 100 prisoners, contains 183, and the state board of charities has protested.

Mowbray, the English anarchist, was in the middle of a violent speech at Chicago when he was stopped by the police.

The sheriff of Sevier county, Tenn., has called on Governor Turney for troops to aid him in securing a trial of men charged with whitecapping.

San Francisco Republicans claim that seventy out of fifty-six members of the national committee favor that city for the national convention.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS.

Gathering at Syracuse for the State Convention.

THE PROBABLE PARTY NOMINEES.

General Horatio C. King May Head the Ticket as the Candidate for Secretary of State—Probable Action of the Convention on the Liquor Question.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Where one week ago the Republicans at Saratoga had practically settled all the details of their convention, with the single exception of the excise plank, here in this city twenty-four hours prior to the meeting of the Democratic convention, no details have been settled, and those few delegates who have arrived are absolutely at sea as to what will be the ticket and what the platform. There does not seem to be any anxiety in the matter except over two points—that of the disposition of the excise matter, and the settlement of disputes between the factions. Even in this latter the anxiety seems to relate to New York city alone, and the contest for minor counties are merely looked upon as temporary matters.

This afternoon Tammany, 500 strong, arrived, and with the State Democracy people, 2,500 in number, upon their heels, there is likely to be music.

First of all in the work to be accomplished prior to the opening of the convention is settling the differences between the faction of the parties from those counties that have elected two sets of delegates. There are small contests in Wayne and Oswego counties which it is possible may be settled by threats rather than moral suasion.

It is pretty well agreed, so far as the Kings contest goes, that the arrangement entered into by the arbitration committee of the Democratic state committee will be agreed to by both factions. This representation gives to the regular organization two-thirds of a vote apiece, and the contestants, known as the Shepardites, one-third vote. This seems to be satisfactory upon the ground that the third of a vote given to the Shepard men fully represents their strength in Kings county.

The general sentiment among the leaders, and even among the rank and file, is that the New York contest should be settled in the same manner. But Tammany representatives here are loud in their assertions that the vote controlled by the state Democracy in New York by no means entitles them to a one-third representation, and that if they were given a one-fourth representation, they would have even then more than their quota.

From the list of the candidates the following may be picked out as the most likely to compose the ticket:

For secretary of state, General Horatio C. King of Kings; attorney general, Daniel C. Griffin of Jefferson; comptroller, Augustus Scheu of Erie; state treasurer, D. L. Dow of Schoharie; state engineer, George Clinton Ward of Oneida; judge of the court of appeals, Edward S. Rapallo of New York.

The only objection to this ticket that could be argued is that New York city does not get the places upon the ticket that she has asked for. Her candidates so far are Theodore W. Myers for comptroller, John A. Mason for state treasurer, and Judge Rapallo for the court of appeals. From a purely lucrative standpoint the position accorded them on the above ticket, that of judge of the court of appeals, is the best of the lot, but it is devoid of political influence, and the delegates from New York would rather land either their candidate for comptroller or state treasurer.

It is the general consensus of opinion here that a majority of the delegates to the convention will favor a local option clause in the platform as to Sunday opening of saloons. A prominent delegate said:

"It has been proposed to adopt last year's plank and modify it so it shall read about as follows:

"'We oppose all sumptuary legislation which needlessly interferes with the personal liberty or reasonable customs of the people. We believe in equitable excise legislation, which carefully regulates the sale of intoxicating liquors, prescribes just fees for licenses, and preserves all needed restriction for the maintenance of order and the good of society. We protest against a sumptuary law whose arbitrary and burdensome provisions are in needless restraint of individual liberty and are opposed to public sentiment and liberal public policy.

"'We advocate such modifications by the legislature of the present law as will admit of proper observance of the Sabbath day, and yet not put needless burdens upon the people, and that residents of localities be allowed local option sale of liquors on Sunday.'"

Indicted for Conspiracy.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 23.—The grand jury indicted Deputy Constable John Tierney, of this city, and Detective M. J. Mulvey, Edward Mott and James Reynolds for conspiracy. It is charged that John Tierney, a well known deputy constable of Scranton, and M. J. Mulvey, James Reynolds and Edward Mott, of Wilkesbarre, the three latter claiming to represent a Chicago agency, devised and put in practice a system of extortion whereby they secured money from several alleged unlicensed liquor sellers up the valley.

A Tough Killed by a Policeman.

WASHINGTON, Sept 23.—Tim Dempsey, a tough character, was shot early yesterday morning by Policeman William Vermillion while resisting arrest. Dempsey died as a result of his wound. Vermillion, who claims that his pistol was accidentally discharged, has been arrested.

Boat Capsized and Three Drowned.

BUFFALO, Sept. 23.—Four boys went out in a boat and were swamped by a passing tug. The eldest, James Kingsley, managed to escape by hanging on to the boat. The other three, William Boore, aged 15, John Kingsley, 13, and William Denny, 11 years of age, were drowned.

THE GRAND VIZIER.

HOW HE IS SELECTED BY THE SULTAN AND INSTALLED.

One of the Most Striking Scenes Connected With the Turkish Court—No One Knows Who Is to Be Named Until the Last Moment—An Impressive Prayer.

The ceremony of "naming" the new grand vizier is one of the most impressive sights imaginable, and as it has seldom if ever been described an attempt to convey some idea of it may not be without interest. It was toward 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon that the servants commenced to carry out from Djevad Pasha's rooms at the sublime porte his books, papers, pens and other private paraphernalia. This was the first intimation given to the world that the grand vizier had fallen. Shortly afterward troops filed up the hill and lined both sides of the road from the landing stage at Sirkidjy to the doors of the porte. The news spread like fire under a wind, and by 5 o'clock all preparations were completed for the reception of the new occupant of the principal office in the empire. In the great council chamber the scene was unique in its quiet dignity. The room was crowded with all the high officials present and past, and though an hour or two previously none there had even guessed what was about to happen each one took his place silently and regularly, without confusion or mistake, awaiting the advent of the still unknown chief.

At the head of the hall a small vacant space was left, around which grouped the present ministers and those who had previously held portfolios. As each came in he paced slowly up the carpet with one short salute. As soon as he reached the end all present returned the temena'a with a sweep of the hand to the ground, breast and forehead. This rhythmical greeting, accentuated by the movement of scarlet fezes in unison with open hands, given in silence, and in the dim, curtained light of the council chamber, defies adequate description by the pen.

And then the newcomer returned the salutes separately, beginning at the left hand side, round the square of his colleagues, subordinates and superiors, and one more candidate for the vizierate was effaced, for nobody knew upon whom the choice of the sultan had fallen. Many names were whispered round, but as their owners entered the circle of greeting their chances were seen to be extinguished. One after another they followed on, till by a process of reduction it became a question of only two or three, all the rest of Turkey's statesmen and all her greatest pashas having already trodden the carpet and taken their seats of expectation. Then from the windows could be seen a small procession winding up the ascent. In front were two horsemen, he on the left a little man well known to all the watchers in the chamber, and on the right the Sheikh ul Islam, shining in the sunlight with his robes of pure white and gold.

In the passing of a breath the name of Ketchuk Said fluttered round the room, and a few moments later the new grand vizier, who had already thrice gone through the same ceremony, was standing in the center of the ministerial group. There he drew from his breast a green silk bag, and extracting from it the imperial hatt he pressed the parchment to his lips and forehead. The dark bearded sheikh repeated this homage to the words of his imperial master, and the hatt was handed to the evrak mudiri, or keeper of the archives, who read aloud that his imperial majesty the sultan, knowing the devotion, well proved, of Said Pasha, intrusted to him the duties of grand vizier, and that, having full confidence in the piety of the Sheikh ul Islam, he prolonged his term of office, being anxious in all things for the best welfare of his people, and might Almighty God bless their efforts toward that end. Then again a wave of sweeping hands and bending heads went round, and the sheikh, in full, deep tones, offered up a prayer for the sultan and the empire. In a moment the council chamber was transformed into a holy place, and the politicians, pashas and scribes, with upturned palms, seemed to have forgotten for a space the world and its vanities. It would be hard to imagine anything more striking than this prayer, and such surroundings and on such an occasion.

With it terminated the investiture. The new grand vizier adjourned to his room with Lord Dunstry for coffee and a perfunctory cabinet council, and later on the old and new viziers and ministers repaired to Yildiz to pay their first or last respects to their lord. Meanwhile another hatt had arrived, changing the occupant of the western wing of the porte, for Said Pasha, who has been minister for foreign affairs for nine years, was bidden to vacate his familiar chair in favor of Turkhan Pasha.—Constantinople Letter.

It May Do As Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe Kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to the cure of all Kidney and liver troubles and ofter gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Prices only 50c. for large bottle at McMonagle & Rogers Drug store.

A KENTUCKY ROMANCER.

James Lane Allen and His Notable Work in the Field of Fiction.

One of the shining literary lights of the new south is James Lane Allen, a young Kentuckian who rejoices in the possession of a very commendable literary past and gives promise of even a more commendable literary future. Allen is a blond young giant with a magnificent head and a strong, kindly face. He was born several years before the beginning of the civil war on a blue grass farm near Lexington, and not far removed from the spot where many generations of his family had lived since the first emigration from Virginia. One of his ancestors, Colonel William Payne, once struck George Washington during a quarrel, but the two men afterward became great friends.

Allen was educated at Kentucky university, finished at the very head of his class and then took a postgraduate course and received the degree M. A. He left the college pretty thoroughly conversant with Latin, Greek, French, German, Spanish and Italian, and for some time taught the languages in southern colleges. His ambition, however, was to do something worth doing in literature.

JAMES LANE ALLEN.

and as college work grew more and more distasteful to him he turned to literature, making his field of fiction his native state.

The rewards of literature in a pecuniary sense are very small, especially to a beginner, and as he studied fiction he also studied law and was admitted to the bar. While in Omaha he wrote his first book, "Allen's Handbook of the Nebraska Code." In 1870 he began the practice of his profession in Chicago and soon attracted considerable attention because of his legal talent and eloquent public addresses on social, political and educational topics.

He loved law, however, less than he loved college work, and steadily continuing his literary labors soon began to make a name for himself in literature. His short stories have been published in the leading magazines, and "The White Cowl," "Sister Dolorosa" and others have plainly demonstrated that he possesses rare talent for the production of fiction of a high class. Two of his best known books are "A Kentucky Cardinal" and "Flute and Violin." As a public reader he has been very successful throughout the south.

Nine Months In Bed, Cured In Twenty Four Hours.

T. J. Blackmore, of Haller & Blackmore, Pittsburgh, Pa., says: "A short time since I procured a bottle of "MYSTIC CURE." It got me out of the house in twenty-four hours. I took to my bed with Rheumatism nine months ago and the "MYSTIC CURE" is the only medicine that did me any good. I had five of the best physicians in the city, but I received very little relief from them. I know the "MYSTIC CURE." to be what it is represented and take pleasure in recommending it to other poor sufferers." Sold by J. E. Mills, druggist, Middletown, N. Y.

How To Use Cottolene

the new shortening, like all other things must be rightly used if you wish the best results. Never, in any recipe, use more than two-thirds as much Cottolene as you used to use of lard. Never put Cottolene in a hot pan. Put it in when cold and heat it with the pan. Be careful not to burn Cottolene. To test it, add a drop of water; if hot enough, it will pop. Cottolene, when rightly used, delights everyone. Get the genuine, sold everywhere in tins, with trade-marks—"Cottolene" and steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—on every tin. Made only by

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and ends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

Nothing But Laughs

CHAIRMAN HINKLEY TALKS.

He Expresses Satisfaction at an Harmony Settlement in Kings.

In a recent interview Major James W. Hinkley, chairman of the Democratic State committee, expressed his gratification at the successful harmony overtures in Brooklyn.

"I have anticipated," he said "a favorable outcome from the negotiations and conferences which have been going on between the regulars and the Shepardites. The proportion of representation accorded to each is apparently fair, and ought to be satisfactory to the Democracy of the State, if it is to those most directly concerned. A united Democracy in Brooklyn ought to insure an old-fashioned Democratic majority in Kings."

Chairman Hinkley said his views regarding the harmonizing of the Democratic party in this State, and giving proper representation to those deserving it, were fully expressed in an open letter published over a year ago. The views which he held then he still adheres to.

Reference to the letter shows it was his idea that those opposed to the regular organizations in New York and Kings counties constituted a fair sized minority of the Democratic voters, but that probably not enough votes could be mustered in any assembly district in opposition to the regular organization to secure the election of delegates to the State convention.

Nevertheless, taken as a whole, Mr. Hinkley believes those opposed to the regulars could poll, if massed, a large vote, too large to be ignored.

POSTAGE STAMP SALES.

Another Significant and Unmistakable Sign of Better Times.

One of the most significant indications of the business revival is found in watching various departments of the post-office business throughout the country. The mails quickly respond both to business depressions and business revivals.

The sales of stamps, stamped envelopes, etc., for the entire fiscal year ending June 30th last were $73,889,598. In 1894 they were, because of the hard times and business panic, only $70,159,151. In 1893 they weree $72,359,213, and in 1892 $70,398,969. Thus the sale on the last fiscal year exceeded that of of the last fiscal year, even that of 1892, when McKinleyism was in its best possible state.

The Reform Era.

The 1895 "reform" tableau opened with charges of bribery in the Oneida County Republican Senatorial convention, while in Pennsylvania Senator Quay made similar charges against eminent Republican reformers.

In Chicago the "reform" city government has resulted in padded pay-rolls, bribery charges, blackmail, and other triumphs of political purity. The Chicago Chronicle says:

"The air of Chicago never was as full as it is now of public scandals. The awful Dunning affair stands first in the list of exposures. Boodle transactions in the council are paralyzed at present, as the council is not in session. The conspiracy of the spoilsmen in both city and county administrations to defraud the two civil service acts has been a phenomenon of political indecency. The stuffed city pay rolls under the Swift machine increases the volume of sensations."

And it is only an average reform year at that.

Miller Machine on Top.

Friends of ex-Speaker Titus Sheard, of Herkimer, are indignant at the methods whereby Warner Miller secured control of the county convention in that county. A majority of the delegates elected were understood to be favorable to Mr. Sheard, but by arbitrarily deciding all contests their way the supporters of the great apostle of wood pulp and high license secured a scant majority of seven. They then ruled things with a high hand, refusing to ex-Speaker Sheard the simple courtesy of being elected a delegate to the State convention. Independent Republicans are not backward in expressing their indignation and foretelling an uprising at the polls against such methods.

A Hopeful Outlook.

Ex-Congressman John J. O'Neil, of St. Louis, said in New York the other day that he considers the Democratic outlook for 1896 a hopeful one. Referring to the country as a whole, he said:

"It did look black some time ago, but the prospect is rapidly improving. The country is getting more prosperous each day. Our party will get the credit of that, and by next year I think that we shall have an excellent chance of winning. As yet, everything is chaotic in the party, but order will come from chaos. No single man stands out clean-cut as a cameo as a Presidential candidate. We have a great deal of excellent timber, and will select a good man."

A Too Common Accusation.

The Republican newspapers of Buffalo charge the Platt faction with all sorts of frauds in their attempt to carry the party caucuses there. "Stuffed ballot-boxes, fraudulent counting, committeemen bribed to betray their trusts—these," says the Express, "were the weapons that the Platt men used." The Express also declares that "some of the Platt men did 'fine work' which is not unlikely to land them in State prison." The Courier (Dem.) quotes "a practical politician who was in the fight" as estimating that more than $10,000 was spent by the two factions.

Political Pointers.

The knife of the indignant voter applied to Mr. Platt's tickets is the best surgery for the ugly sore of bossism.

Platt's legislative and State tickets ought to receive the solid vote of all citizens who admire the late Legislature, the 3.24 tax rate and political bossism.

Control of the Legislature greases Platt's machine. Shut off the grease and sidetrack the concern, independents!

The issue this year is between decency and bossism. If you are an enemy of bossism and a friend of decency, help smash Platt's machine with your ballot.

"A Fool Performance."

Even the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle (Rep.), revolted against that absurd excise platform adopted by the Republican League club's convention, calling it "a fool performance," than which "nothing could be more mischevous."

"WHY NOT?"

An Unanswered Inquiry by the Chief Republican Organ.

The fact that Superintendent of Public Buildings Easton has enormously increased the number of employes and the expenses of his department from what it was in the time of Democratic Superintndent Delehanty is well-known by all who are in the habit of frequenting the capitol at Albany. The increased expense in this direction will indeed of itself make a big hole in the revenues taken from the pockets of the taxpayers under the 3.24 tax. Of course it need hardly be said that this standing army of employes is not required for any useful purpose of State, and is indeed maintained solely in the interests of the regular Republican organization, or Platt machine.

If testimony on this subject were needed, the State, the new Republican paper of Albany, has furnished it, by publishing an official list of Easton's employes. The authenticity of the list is not disputed. "There are," says the New York Tribune, (the leading Republican paper of the State, remember), commenting upon these facts, "over two hundred of these heelers regularly employed, and no less than one hundred and thirty more 'extras,' who are employed under the special appropriation for elevators, repairs, etc. That is to say, the taxpayers of this State are maintaining a standing army of about three hundred men and thirty or forty women to care for three public buildings, which could and should be looked after properly by less than one-fourth of that number. This force includes orderlies, engineers, watchmen, laborers, cleaners, janitors, porters, firemen, messengers, in seemingly endless array. Some of them do not pretend to perform any serious labor; all of them practically do about as they please. They are political appointments entirely. They are mostly from Albany. They are all followers of Barnes. He has used the Capitol patronage simply to strengthen himself politically. The overwhelming majority of reputable Republicans in Albany are against him. Governor Morton knows that now, if he did not know it last winter at the time of Easton's appointment, and yet Barnes is permitted to use this department. Thousands of dollars of the taxpayers' money is being wasted in order that the Platt machine may be built up. It is being done right under the eyes of the Governor, and yet not a whisper in the way of protest is heard from the Executive Chamber. Why not?"

THOSE JUNKETS.

Members All on Hand at the Saratoga Convention.

No less than three junketing committees of the late Assembly were on hand conveniently holding sessions at Saratoga during the Republican State Convention. The committee that has been investigating Adirondack timber land depredations felt that a little spring water (at, of course, the expense of the State,) would wonderfully facilitate its laborious duties. The Cities Committee and the Judiciary Committee, which have also been conducting midsummer investigations, were well represented at Saratoga, and the bill of expenses will be a very comfortable addition to the State's expenditures under the Republican administration.

It is hard to estimate the total drain to which the State treasury has been subjected by these junketing committees and their alleged investigations, which are, in fact, merely a convenient way of passing the vacation months at the expense of the State.

A PRETTY REFORMER.

What Do the Voters in Lexow's District Think of Him?

After Mr. Goff had shown beyond dispute that a bi-partisan police board meant "divvy" and immeasurable corruption, Lexow went back to Albany and introduced and passed a bi-partisan police bill to legalize and compel all the evils his committee had discovered.

He has his reward in Platt's favor. Platt has made him chairman of his convention by way of inflating his vanity, and has directed his nomination and re-election to the senate by the faithful in Rockland county.

But what do the voters of Rockland county think of such a "reformer?"—New York World.

"Gone Democratic."

The Calumet blast furnace at South Chicago has resumed operations after three years idleness, having shut down when McKinleyism was in its palmiest days. The president of the company says that the constantly increasing demand for iron in the United States is the cause for resuming work. Branch offices of the Calumet works are to be established in Cleveland, St. Louis, Pittsburg and Philadelphia, while the main agency is in Cincinnati.

Another gratifying bit of intelligence in the line of returning prosperity due to the rational settlement of the tariff problem by tax reduction through Democratic tariff reform is this, in the Lake Superior correspondence of the Iron Age—in a recent issue:

"As near as can now be estimated, shipments of iron ore out of Lake Superior for August have amounted to not less than 1,200,000 tons, making the total for the year to September 4, 4,638,000 tons, as against only about 5,740,000 gross tons shipped out of the Lake Superior ports for all of last year * * * The Gogebic range is more prosperous than for some years. * * * The Pioneer mine has resumed shipments after several years of idleness, and is shipping about 1,000 tons daily. * * * At the village of Mountain Iron the mine force has been doubled, and a second shovel has been started in the stripping. The mine is sending out about 2,500 tons daily."

Political Pointers.

The old slate was not even cracked at Saratoga, which makes it all the easier for good citizens to smash it all together next November.

If citizens do their duty, Mr. Platt's machine will be for sale at auction to anybody who wants a second-hand lawn-mower Nov. 6 next.

Don't discourage the board of health or overwork the disinfectant concern by electing another Platt legislature. You can tell one as far as you can smell its record.

Springfield Gets the Steinert Cup.

PROVIDENCE, Sept 23.—The Eastern League champions won the Steinert cup yesterday afternoon by defeating Providence for the fourth time since the cup series began. The cup was offered for the club winning four games out of seven. Providence won only two games. Springfield took yesterday's game by a score of 9 to 6.

Another Claim Against Spain.

TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 23.—John Repko, for fifteen years proprietor of the Roma Grand Country hotel at Havana, arrived here last night. He is a Hungarian by birth, but became an American citizen ten years ago. The kitchen and warehouses connected with his hotel were built upon a government lot for which he paid them rental. On July 19, at midnight, he and his family, consisting of his wife and six children, the eldest but 9 years, were forcibly ejected from their property. The ejectment continued until morning, when the boarders were forced to leave the breakfast table. Every vestige of furniture was removed and the entire property confiscated. All this was occasioned by a debt of $800, which Repko owed the government for rent of the lot. Repko will ask the government to recognize his claim and request damages, which he places at $50,000.

Fitzsimmons Off for Texas.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Bob Fitzsimmons left yesterday afternoon for Texas in a special train of three cars over the Pennsylvania railroad. He was accompanied by Mrs. Fitzsimmons, Martin Julian, his manager, Mrs. Julian, Charlie White, the pugilist's trainer, and Emil Roeber, the German wrestler. Fitzsimmons will go to Corpus Christi, Tex., where he will train until he goes to Dallas to fight for the championship. The first stop will be made at Lynchburg, Va., where Fitzsimmons will give an exhibition. From there the party will go to Corpus Christi, making a short stay at San Antonio.

Three Workmen Roasted Alive.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 23.—Three men were literally roasted alive at the Atlas Paint works, Allegheny. The fire was the result of the explosion of a quantity of benzine, which ignited through the carelessness of one of the dead men. The dead are: Joseph Lasravic, aged 21, single; Henry Turner, aged 35, leaves a wife and four children. George Tulic, aged 28, single. Turner was mixing paint, thinking that all the fires had been extinguished. A barrel of benzine was opened, and the men were carrying a large pail of the fluid to the mixing room, when the explosion occurred.

Forged Checks at Bridgeport.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept. 23.—Bridgeport banks have received over twenty apparently certified checks from banks in Jersey City, Hoboken and other places in the vicinity of New York during the past few days. The checks were those known as round-trip orders, which the public buy and use in all banks, and were supposed by those who cashed them to have been certified by cashiers or tellers here. The checks were all signed "E. S. Morris," and were made payable to G. B. Williams. The banks have discovered that the checks were all counterfeit.

White Squadron Off for Hampton Roads.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The five ships of the White squadron of the North Atlantic consisting of the flag-ship New York, Admiral Bunce; the Columbia, the Minneapolis, the Raleigh and the Montgomery, which have been lying off St. George, Tompkinsville and Stapleton, S. I. for the past six days, sailed today for Hampton Roads. The squadron will be joined at Hampton Roads by the battleship Texas, lately commissioned at the Norfolk navy yard, and the double turreted monitor Amphitrite.

Five Buried in a Landslide.

QUEBEC, Sept. 23.—A report comes from St. Luc, Champlain county, of a disastrous landslide on the Champlain river Saturday night. Zephirin Normandin's house was carried away and five members of the family were buried in the debris. Three children escaped by jumping through windows, one of whom has since become insane as the result of the calamity. After great difficulty the residents of the vicinity succeeded in digging out the five dead bodies. Further destruction is almost certain.

A Lover's Double Crime.

OSKALOOSA, Ia., Sept. 23.—M. E. Stinson, of St. Louis, formerly agent for the Rock Island railroad at Fairfield, Ia., at which point his parents reside, shot and killed Miss Anna Moore, of Panora yesterday, and then committed suicide. The girl for some time past has been a student at Iowa college. She came here from Grinnell Friday night and was met by Stinson. The couple took rooms at the Asher House, where the tragedy occurred. The reason for the killing is unknown.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The Democratic electors of the State of New York are requested to unite in sending three delegates and three alternates from each Assembly District to a State Convention, to be held at Syracuse on Tuesday, Sept. 24th, 1895, at 12 o'clock noon, for placing in nomination candidates to be voted for at the ensuing general election, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

J. W. HINKLEY, Chairman.

Attest: JOHN B. JUDSON, Secretary.

JUDICIAL CONVENTION.

Pursuant to the resolution adopted at the Democratic Judiciary Convention of 1894, for the Second Judicial Department authorizing and directing the chairman of that convention to name the time and place for the holding of the next Democratic Judiciary Convention for that district, I do hereby designate the County Court House, in the city of Brooklyn, as the place, and October 2d, 1895 at 12 o'clock m., as the time for that convention to meet for the selection of three candidates for Supreme Court Justice in the Second Judicial Department.

ROBERT STEWART, Chairman Democratic Judiciary Convention, 1894

Attest—JOSEPH FITCH, Secretary Democratic Judiciary Convention, 1894.

Dated Brooklyn, Sept. 12th, 1895.

DEMOCRATIC SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

The Democratic electors of the Twenty-third Senatorial District are hereby requested to send forty-eight (48) delegates to represent them in the Senatorial Convention, to be held at the Casino, in the city of Middletown, on WEDNESDAY, OCT. 2D, 1895.

At 1 o'clock p. m. The said delegates to be apportioned as follows: Rockland county, sixteen (16) delegates; Orange county, thirty-two (32) delegates, to be apportioned to the several towns and wards, as follows: Each town and ward to elect one delegate, with the exception of the town of Deerpark, which is requested to send three delegates.

T. A. BROWN, Chairman.

MICHAEL McCABE, Secretary.

A. S. CASSEDY, S. D. ROBERSON, GEO. H. PIERSON, CHAS. M. VAIL, JOHN P. WALSH, GEORGE DICKEY, J. BOGERT SUFFERN. } Senatorial Committee.

Dated Newburgh, Sept. 10th, 1895.

TOWN OF WAWAYANDA.

The Democratic electors of the town of Wawayanda are requested to meet at the house of Wm. H. Green, in Iate Hill, on Thursday, Sept. 26th, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, to elect delegates to the con entions called and hereafter to be called, and to transact other business that may come before the meeting.

D. W. REEVE, M. B. AUSTIN, C. C. FULLERTON, } Town Committee.

Dated Slate Hill, Sept. 17th, 1895.

At a local election in Richmond Hill, L. I., Thursday, the "reform" blanket ballot was used and out of 421 ballots fifty-nine had to be rejected as defective. If anything like this proportion of defective ballots is rejected at the general election the new system of voting will take precedence over any device yet discovered for preventing a free expression of the popular will.

Among the matters likely to be brought before the Democratic State convention is a scheme to change the basis of representation in the State Committee from Congressional to Senatorial districts and to make the chairmen of the county committees ex-officio members of the State Committee. No political or factional purpose is back of the proposed change and its advocates urge it merely on the ground that it will increase the efficiency of the organization by bringing it into closer touch with the people.

The Sound Money Committee of the New York Chamber of Commerce has been at pains to ascertain the views of the next Congress on the free coinage question. Only eighty-eight members of the House declare themselves in favor of free silver; fifty-two decline to commit themselves or are undecided and 216 are opposed to free silver. The Senate is more evenly divided. There are forty-three votes against free silver, six doubtful votes and thirty-nine silver votes. Utah is expected to send free silver Senators.

The English athletes who competed with American muscle and skill on Manhattan Field, Saturday, were defeated in every event, failing to score a single point. The intense heat was, of course, favorable to the Americans, for they suffered less from its relaxing and debilitating effects than did the Englishmen, unacclimated to the excesses of our temperature, but the superiority of the American athletes was so marked that it is certain victory would have been theirs under circumstances and conditions most favorable for the visitors.

The Democratic State Convention, which meets in Saratoga, to-morrow, will have plenty of good material from which to select candidates. For every nomination in the convention's gift there are several aspirants—men of character and prominence and wide experience in affairs, who would not seek nomination if they were not satisfied that Democratic success is more than probable. The outlook is full of cheer and if wise counsels prevail in the convention the Democratic campaign will be begun under most favorable auspices.

Nearly everyone needs a good tonic at this season. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the one true tonic and blood purifier. 1

Delegates Gathering at Syracuse—Nominations Likely To Be Made.

BY UNITED PRESS.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 23.—The city is fast filling up with the hosts of Democracy. It now looks as if the nominations made would be as follows:

For Secretary of State, Horatio C. King, Brooklyn; for Attorney-General, D. G. Griffin, Watertown; for State Treasurer, John B. Judson, Gloversville; for State Comptroller, Augustus C. Scheu, of Buffalo; for State Engineer and Surveyor, George Clinton Ward, Boonville; for Judge of Court of Appeals, Alton B. Parker, Kingston.

PERISHED IN THE SNOW.

BY UNITED PRESS.

RAWLINGS, Wyo., Sept. 23—Two young sons of Ranchman Nevin are believed to have perished in the snow storm, Saturday, while attending to stock. No trace of them have been found. The snow lies two feet deep.

A HOME FOR THE Y. M. C. A.

A Mass Meeting in the Interest of the Project—No Donations to Be Asked For.

Owing to an unusual combination of events the present time affords an unique opportunity for providing the Y. M. C. A. of this city with a suitable home, rent free.

In order to accomplish this desirable end the hearty co-operation of all of the friends of the association here is needed.

A mass meeting of all of those who would like to have a Young Men's Christian Association building erected here, this year, has been called for to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, in the Second Presbyterian Church, at 8 o'clock.

At this meeting, the means by which it is hoped to secure these ends will be explained and the plans and drawings for the proposed building exhibited. The donation of a single dollar will not be asked for, nor is it needed to successfully carry out the project.

What is absolutely essential is a full attendance of all interested. Opportunity will be provided for a free discussion of the merits of the case.

An attractive musical programme will be given.

DROPPED OUT OF SIGHT.

William Poutney, of Port Jervis, Disappears—His Property Ordered Sold to Pay Alimony to His Divorced Wife.

Mr. William Poutney, of Port Jervis, has been missing for two weeks, and his friends are very anxious concerning him and fear that he may be a victim of foul play. When last seen he boarded an Erie train for New York city.

In May, 1889, his wife obtained a decree of separation and an order directing him to pay her $15 per week. This sum was paid regularly until last June, when he pleaded inability to pay, although it was supposed he possessed considerable means, as he was the owner of the Poutney glass works and a residence adjoining.

On Saturday a week ago, Judge Brown granted an order of sequestration and appointed William H. Crane receiver to sell Mr. Poutney's property and appropriate the proceeds to the payment of alimony to Mrs. Poutney.

Mr. Poutney retired from the glass business, several years ago, during a strike of his employes.

Seeking Relief from the Heat on the Electric Cars.

The Traction Co. did a big business yesterday. Its cars not only carried large crowds to the park to hear the sacred concert, but many Middletown and Goshen people made the trip over the line to get relief from the sultry heat, the open cars always creating a breeze if none exists.

A Veteran Editor's Anniversary.

Mr. A. A. Bansel, who, early in the forties, founded the Middletown Courier, a Democratic paper which took a very lively part in the Polk and Dallas campaign in 1844, celebrated his seventy-seventh birthday and his fiftieth wedding anniversary at his home in Newburgh, yesterday. The Middletown Courier office was in the Union House, now the Commercial Hotel on West Main street, and it was there that Thomas King, the Middletown Bank's last President, learned the printers' trade. Mr. Bansel has lived in Newburgh for many years and has been connected at different times with several papers in that city.

One advantage of taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla to purify the blood is that you need not infringe upon your hours of labor nor deny yourself any food that agrees with you. In a word, you are not compelled to starve or loaf while taking it. These are recommendations worth considering

Dr. Miles' Pain Pills, "One cent a dose."

UNDER THE CAR WHEELS.

A Chester Carpenter Decapitated on the Newburgh Branch.

John Crommell, twenty-three years old, a Chester carpenter, boarded a freight train at Craigville, Saturday afternoon, intending to ride to Newburgh to see the Wild West Show. He had only ridden a short distance, when he lost his hold and fell to the track, with his neck across the rail. Several cars passed over him, severing his head from his body and mutilating the lower part of his face so badly that it was some time after the body had been found and taken to Washingtonville before it was recognized. An uncle of the dead man then identified it by the clothing.

Crommell leaves a young wife, whose grief, when she learned of her husband's fate, was heartrending.

JUMPED FROM ROSENDALE BRIDGE.

A Kingston Man Fatally Injured in Escaping from a Runaway Car.

A coal car that was being switched at Binnewater, on the Wallkill Valley Railroad, Saturday, got beyond control and ran away down the grade to the Rosendale Bridge. A large force of men was at work reconstructing the bridge. All got out of the way, except George Patterson, of Kingston, who was at work near the southern terminus and who, realizing that he could not get to the end of the bridge before the car overtook him, jumped to the ground beneath, a distance of thirty feet. Both arms were so badly broken that amputation was necessary and his other injuries are so serious that it is thought he cannot recover.

The Irony of Psalmody.

Of course it just happened so, but it struck the worshipp rs in one of the city churches, yesterday morning, as a little peculiar that with the thermometer soaring up to the hundred mark they should be made all the hotter by a reminder from the choir that there are icy mountains in Greenland. In another church the singing of "By Cool Siloam's Shady Rill" had a distinctly aggravating effect on those who were sweltering in the intense heat.

Dissatisfied With Condensery Prices.

Farmers who have been selling milk to the condensery at Wallkill are very much dissatisfied with the prices for the next six months announced on last contract day and over a third of them refused to sign the contract. They say that at the prices offered and under the restrictions imposed they cannot make ends meet. A number of farmers in the Coldenham neighborhood have arranged to sell to Creamerym n Thompson, of New Windsor.

Dr Lyman Abbott Thrown from His Horse.

Rev. Lyman Abbott, D. D., pastor of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, while riding on horseback, Saturday, near his summer home at Cornwall, was thrown from his horse and had his collar bone broken, and received many bad cuts and bruises. It is expected that he will be able to preach next Sunday.

Running Through to the North End

Cars on the city line began, yesterday, to make regular trips over the recently completed extension of the line. Twenty minutes are allowed for the trip from the North to South end, and in order to make their time the crews have to keep hustling and there is no chance to squeeze out a few minutes' rest at the ends of the line.

A Successful Fishing Trip.

Mr. William J. Davis, who has been spending a week at McKee Pond, Sullivan county, returned home, yesterday, bringing with him a large number of fine fish. Mr. Davis was not feeling at all well when he went to Sullivan county, but his many friends will be glad to know that he returns greatly improved in health.

To Organize a Bowling League.

A meeting of those interested in the formation of a bowling league will be held at the armory, to-morrow evening. Port Jervis, Newburgh, Goshen, Middletown and possibly Warwick will be represented.

Not Dead but Very Sick.

A rumor was current, Saturday afternoon, to the effect that Mr. Charles H. Worcester had died from the effects of a hemorrhage, but we are happy to say the story is untrue. Mr. Worcester is a very sick man and has had several hemorrhages, but is resting very comfortably to-day.

The 24th to Visit Newburgh.

The 24th Separate Company will visit Newburgh, Thursday of this week, for the purpose of participating in a battalion drill with the 5th Separate Company of that city.

The company will leave by special train via the Erie, at 9:45 o'clock a. m., from the James street depot. Returning the train will leave Newburgh at 9 p. m.

AT THE COUNTY SEAT.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

Democratic Delegates—A Candidate for the Assembly—Personal Notes—The Next Ball Game.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

—At the Democratic caucus at the Court House in this village, Saturday evening, P. A. Powers called the meeting to order, and on motion Mr. S. Logan Kniffin was chosen chairman and H. C. Horton secretary. The following delegates were chosen:

Senatorial—P. A. Powers, Seneca Jessup, C. G. Elliott.

County—H. J. Dedrick, Thomas Finan, H. C. Horton, Frank Fay, H. T. Van Duzer, Theodore Smith.

Assembly—R. A. Kipp, C. Riverkamp, T. D. Tuthill, Frank Drake, J. E. Millspaugh, J. N. Hansen.

—Dr. J. H. Thompson has announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Member of Assembly. The doctor is well known throughout the county, and in case he is nominated will make a strong run. He is an eloquent speaker, and would ably represent the district.

—Mr. Harry S. Allison met with a painful accident, Saturday night. While coming down stairs at his home he caught his foot in a door mat and fell headlong, breaking his collar bone.

—Mr. Henry Haight, who has been spending the summer in the Adiron dacks, returned home Saturday.

—Miss Lizzie Brown, formerly of this village, now of Ashville, N. C., is visiting relatives and friends in town.

—The Goshen and Middletown base ball clubs will play a game of ball on the Hospital grounds, in Middletown, Friday afternoon of this week.

IN ANCIENT GOSHEN.

The Junior Auxiliary Entertainment Next Week—An Exodus of Goshenites—An Unexpected Regard for Appearances.

From a Special Correspondent.

—The young ladies of St. James Junior Auxiliary will hold a sale of fancy articles, at Music Hall next Thursday evening. During the course of the evening a charade will be acted by a number of young ladies connected with the society. The proceeds of the entertainment will be sent to a mission parish in South Carolina.

—The Wild West Show and the Orange County Fair proved powerful attractions to the good people of Goshen, last week.

—Miss Marie Ireland, of New York, has been spending a two weeks' vacation at the home of her mother in Crystal Run.

—Sometimes one finds a regard for appearances cropping up in some very unexpected quarter, and doubtless it is well that this so, for bruises both of the flesh and spirit are better kept concealed. The writer remembers once visiting a friend, and while one day occupied in her kitchen was for a short time at the mercy of a maid servant who had a tongue of the variety generally described as being "hung in the middle." Like many persons in a more elevated station in life, she was commenting upon the faults and frailties of her neighbors, being especially contemptuous of one man who, when in an inebriated condition, would sally forth into the street and issue a general invitation to the public at large to "come on." This course she condemned with great severity, and concluded her remarks upon that subject by saying with an air of conscious pride and superiority: "Now when pa gets drunk he comes in and shuts all the doors and windows and fights kind o' low so nobody 'll hear him." To an unprejudiced and disinterested person it would perhaps seem that the first gentleman, he who did his fighting out of doors and with comparative strangers, was preferable as a steady inmate to him who fought his wife and family "kind o' low," rather than cause a scandal in the vicinity. Evidently, however, the girl was willing to endure the bruises rather than to have her paternal relative make a public exhibition of himself. We may smile at her apparent inconsistency in revealing his failing to an entire stranger but the fact that she regarded that as such a matter of fact, was an entire temperance lecture in itself. G. H.

A Wild Westerner Fined

Bert C. Kellen, the engineer of the Wild West show's electric light plant, who was arrested in this city, Friday night, by a Port Jervis officer for assaulting Daniel E. Conkling, while the show was in Port Jervis, was taken to that village and on Saturday was fined $10 by Justice McCormick.

Mr. U T Hayes' Rough Passage.

Writing from Southampton, England, on the 14th inst., Mr. U. T. Hayes informs his family he had a very rough voyage. All of one night it seemed as if the ship could not outlast the tempest. The passengers were huddled below, and so wild were the motions of the ship that they had to cling to the sides of their berths to escape being dashed to death.

AN INTERESTING EVENT.

The Rite of Circumcision Performed at the Residence of Mr L. Stern.

An interesting event in Hebrew families is the ceremony attending circumcision. Such an event occurred, yesterday, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. Stern, when the rite of circumcision was performed upon their son, Benjamin, Dr. Pulvermacher, of Brooklyn, officiating.

There were present the members of Congregation Beth Israel, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schoenfield, of Jacksonville, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. M. Fox, of Hartford, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Michael, of Newark. All of the ladies above named are sisters of Mrs. Stern. The latter's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. F. Stern, of Newburgh, were also present.

The usual social features of such an event followed the performance of the religious rite, and as Mr. Stern never does anything by halves it may be understood that his guests were royally entertained.

DESERTED HIS CAR.

Conductor Carpenter Wanted His Turn Off Duty and Took It.

Conductor Carpenter left his car on James street, last night, without notifying his motorman. The latter, when the conductor's absence was discovered, ran his car to the square, where another employe of the company was found who acted as conductor until Assistant Superintendent Gausman was met on a car in the east end of town, when the latter took charge.

Nothing was heard of Mr. Carpenter until this morning, when he reported at the office of the company, and turned in his cash and punch.

It is said Mr. Carpenter did not want to run last night, as it was his turn off duty, but Mr. Gausman insisted that he should as there was no available man to take his place and, after running for a time, he concluded to take his turn off in spite of the official, and stepped off, all wing the car to go on without him.

THE WAY OF THE TRANSGRESSOR.

Hot Wave Drunks—George Wallace Sent to the Penitentiary—A Constable Fined for Assault

The intense heat of Saturday and yesterday was productive of an unusual number of drunks, three of whom fell into the hands of the police. One man paid $5 and another paid $3.

George Wallace, colored, will spend the next six months in Albany penitentiary. George has been there twice before, and therefore his visit will not be a novelty. He has given the police considerable trouble of late and, Saturday night, showered abuse upon the head of Officer Wilson. The latter stood it as long as possible and finally locked the man up.

George Knox appeared before Justice Powelson in answer to a summons served upon him by Constable "Hipe" Knapp, in a suit brought by a groceryman. Knox and Knapp had words, during which the latter alleges that the former called him a liar. This was too much for "Hipe's" blood, and he struck Knox in the face. The belligerents then had a sprint race to make a complaint before the Recorder.

Knox was the best runner and got his complaint in first. "Hipe" acknowledged striking the man and was promptly fined $5, which he paid. He is now studying how he is going to get square with Knox, as he doesn't think the blow was heavy enough for $5.

THE PRESIDENT COMING TO MIDDLETOWN.

The Sick May Receive Medical Services Free of Charge.

The President and members of the European and American Staff of German, English, Irish, Scandinavian and American Doctors of New York city will be at the Russell House, Middletown, on one day only. The sick and afflicted may consult them without charge during their stay.

Tuesday, October 1st,

If you are incurable they will tell you; therefore invalids must not take offence if they are rejected, as no case will be accepted unless there is a moral certainty of a cure being effected. These Doctors are graduates of the best universities of Europe and America; they are of the highest standing in the medical profession and have had unlimited experience in the treatment of all Chronic Diseases and Deformities. As the latest methods, instruments and appliances of the various schools of both the Old and the New World are familiar to and at the command of this staff of doctors, it is reasonable to believe that in ninety cases out of every hundred a cure can be effected, even when the patients have been given up as incurable by doctors who have had less experience. Do not be discouraged because your doctor cannot give you relief, or even if he tells you that you cannot get well, for it matters not what your disease may be, you can consult the doctors free, and, if curable, they will treat you; if incurable, they will give you such advice as will tend to prolong life and afford you the greatest relief.

The doctor visits Middletown one day each month. Will be at 21 Broom street, Port Jervis, Wednesday Oct. 2d. Office hours from 10:30 a m. to 5 p. m.

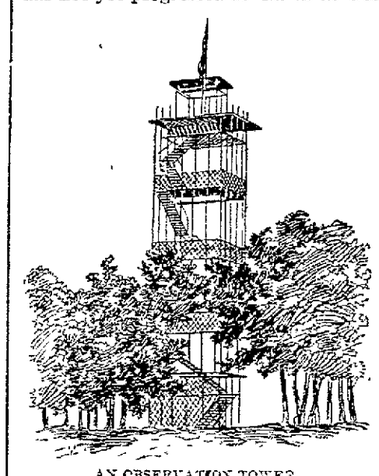
WITCH HAZEL OIL

TO HONOR THE BRAVE

OPENING OF THE MILITARY PARK OF CHICKAMAUGA-CHATTANOOGA.

Great Preparations For the Celebration of Sept. 19 and 20, Which Will Be Attended by Thousands of Veterans From North and South.

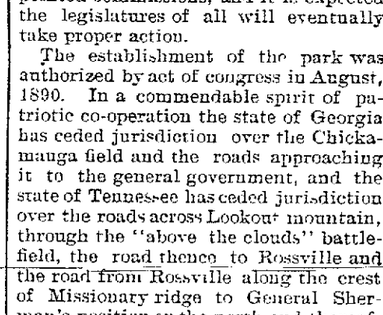
Nowhere in the world except in America is there any such battle memorial as that furnished by the national park on the battlegrounds of Chickamauga and Chattanooga, to be formally opened on Sept. 19 and 20. This park is to the west what Gettysburg is to the east, and, although the task of marking the lines of battle, the positions of different bodies of troops and the spots where exceptionally severe fighting took place has not yet progressed as far as at Gettysburg, yet very much has been done, and those who visit Chickamauga for the first time on the days of the coming celebration will, no doubt, be greatly surprised at the extent of the work.



AN OBSERVATION TOWER.

According to the last report of Secretary Lamont, the park now contains 5,521 acres. One thousand more acres are to be added, and were it not for the exorbitant prices asked by the owners of adjacent lands still more would be bought. Forty-one miles of road have been built, and state commissions and a committee from the Society of the Army of the Tennessee have been occupied for months in locating the lines of battle. Troops from the following states took part in the engagements commemorated: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and Wisconsin. Nearly all of these states have appointed commissions, and it is expected the legislatures of all will eventually take proper action.

The establishment of the park was authorized by act of congress in August, 1890. In a commendable spirit of patriotic co-operation the state of Georgia has ceded jurisdiction over the Chickamauga field and the roads approaching it to the general government, and the state of Tennessee has ceded jurisdiction over the roads across Lookout mountain, through the "above the clouds" battlefield, the road thence to Rossville and the road from Rossville along the crest of Missionary ridge to General Sherman's position on the north end thereof. The government has purchased Orchard knob, where the headquarters of Generals Grant and Thomas were located on the third day, and also that part of Missionary ridge where General Bragg's headquarters were situated. Five observation towers of iron and steel, each 70 feet high, have been erected by the government—two on Missionary ridge and three on the field of Chickamauga. Two thousand cast iron tablets, each marking some important event, have been set up. Each of these is 4 by 3 feet in size and bears an inscription in plain white letters embossed on a black background. These tablets deal impartially with the men of the north and south, the inscriptions indicating the headquarters, positions and charges during the various fights. Seventy guns mounted on carriages, such as were used in the battles, indicate the principal positions occupied by the batteries at Chickamauga. Eight pyramids of heavy shells, each 10 feet high, have been erected to show where brigade commanders, both Union and Confederate, were killed. The eight commanders thus commemorated were Brigadier General W. H Lytle, U. S. A., commanding the first brigade of Sheridan's division, killed Sept. 20; Colonel Philemon P Baldwin, U. S. A., commanding a brigade in Johnson's division, killed Sept. 19; Colonel Edward A. King, U. S. A., commanding a brigade of Reynolds' division, killed Sept 20; Colonel Hands C Hog, commanding a brigade of Davis' division, mortally wounded



BRIGADIER GENERAL

Sept. 19; Brigadier General Benjamin H Helm, C. S. A., of Breckinridge's division, mortally wounded Sept. 20, Brigadier General James Deshler of Cleburne's division, killed Sept 20; Brigadier General Preston Smith of Cheatham's division, killed Sept. 20, and General Peyton H. Colquit of the Forty sixth Georgia, mortally wounded Sept 20. For the regular troops nine monuments have been set up by the general government, while each state is expected to contribute monuments to its own troops. Ohio has so far done more in this direction than any other state. It will thus be seen that this magnificent park will be amply furnished with memorial objects. Not only is it the most extensive military memorial and object lesson in the world, but, everything considered, the engagements it commemorates were among the most important of the entire struggles between the north and the south. They include the battle of Chickamauga, one of the bloodiest of modern times, which took place on Sept. 19, 20 and 21, 1863, just 32 years before the time set for the coming celebration; the scarcely less sanguinary engagement of Missionary Ridge and the subsequent battles at Lookout Mountain, Orchard Knob, Brown's Ferry and Wauhatchie.

The battle of Chickamauga was a Confederate victory, but the engagement of Missionary Ridge, which closed the series of fights in the immediate vicinity of Chattanooga, caused the campaign as a whole to result in Federal triumph. This occurred on Nov. 25, a little more than two months after the battle of Chickamauga, and was a much more sweeping victory, owing to the uncontrollable zeal of the Federal troops, than their commanders had thought possible. It is not feasible in so brief an article as the present to recount in sequence the thrilling military events of the fateful two months of 1863 that are shortly to be celebrated, and every student of civil war history is already familiar with the records. It may be recalled, however, that of the entire series of engagements the concluding one at Missionary Ridge was the most spectacular, as the opening one at Chickamauga was the most sanguinary of the entire campaign. The average losses on each side at Chickamauga on the part of the troops which fought through two days were fully 33 per cent, and some portions on each side suffered losses as high as from 50 to 75 per cent.

The exercises which will be observed at the opening of the park will be of the most interesting nature. They will begin a few days after the close of the G. A. R. encampment, at Louisville, and many attending the encampment will go directly from there to Chattanooga. It is believed that the attendance will largely exceed that which has been brought out at any other similar gathering since the work of memorializing the events of the civil war was begun. In recognition of the significant fact that the monuments of the blue and the gray stand side by side the attendance from the south will be as large as from the north—perhaps larger.

It is expected that President Cleveland and his cabinet, members of the supreme court, heads of the executive departments, the admiral of the navy, the governors of many states and sections of state militia and regulars will be present as well as thousands of veterans and civilians. The United States government will expend $20,000 in seeing to it that its officials are properly represented. The bill appropriating this sum was prepared by General Wheeler of Alabama, who commanded a Confederate battery at Chickamauga. It was presented by General Grosvenor of Ohio, who was on the field on the Federal side.

The only private monument as yet provided for is now being built at Hartford to commemorate the bravery of George W. Landrum, a lieutenant of the Second Ohio. It will be erected by the sister of the deceased, Mrs. Obed J. Wilson of Cincinnati.

The handsomest monument is the memorial on Snodgrass hill to the Second regiment of Minnesota. The most striking feature of this monument is a group of three figures in bronze of rather more than life size, representing the color guard in action. The central figure, standing, represents the standard bearer himself. At one side there is a kneeling figure with hand pressing a wounded breast. On the other side there is a figure stooping with gun in position for defending the flag.

The coming reunion will furnish occasion for the recital of many reminiscences of wartime days, and these reminiscences will, no doubt, include humorous as well as tragic incidents, for the ridiculous often follows closely upon the heroic. Here is one oft told story that will probably be repeated with many variations. It was at Chickamauga that western and eastern soldiers first fought together in the army of the Confederacy, and men from each section had before this believed themselves superior to men from the other section. On the second day of the fight Longstreet's men went into battle. As they did so they passed a lot of the Tennessee troops who were waiting for orders.

"Lie down, Tennesseeans, and see the Georgians go in," called out one of Longstreet's officers as Kershaw's and Humphrey's brigades attacked Snodgrass Hill. A half hour later, when the Georgians came back, vainly trying to pull themselves together and reform their lines, one of Stewart's officers said, "Rise up, Tennesseeans, and see the Georgians come out." In spite of the absorbing and awful nature of the situation this brought out a hearty laugh from those who heard it.

"Matron of a Benevolent Home and knowing the good Dr. Miles' Nervine has done me, my wish to help others, overcomes my dislike for the publicity, this letter may give me. In Nov. and Dec., 1893, The inmates had the "LaGrippe," and I was one of the first. Resuming duty too soon, with the care of so many sick, I did not regain my health, and in a month I became so debilitated and nervous from sleeplessness and the drafts made on my vitality, that it was a question if I could go on. A dear friend advised me to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I took 2 bottles and am happy to say, I am in better health than ever. PICTURES AND EYES.

How to Adjust the Latter to Properly Observe the Former.

The observer, in order to see a picture to the best advantage, must adjust his vision to that of the artist who produced it. Most of us do this instinctively. Not only do we select the best point of view from which to observe a picture, but we recede from the painting until the lights and colors blend in just the right degree. In addition to that many instinctively pinch the eyes together, producing thus a momentary astigmatism, such as the artist had produced in his own eye, and find the picture thus apparently improved.

A most useful appliance for viewing pictures is the so called stenopaic slit. This is merely a slit one or two millimeters in width in a card or thin plate of brass. Simple as this device is but few persons are aware of how much it adds to the effect in viewing paintings, as it allows the rays of light in only one meridian to pass through the cornea of the observer. If he wishes to look at a painting done by an artist whose vision is normal, or nearly so, the observer turns the slit around to correspond with the meridian of his own best vision. If, however, he looks at a picture in which it is desirable to have overlapping of the retinal images—at one where the colors must be mixed in the eye, for example—it is necessary to rotate the slit to another position, usually at right angles to the first, and with this a canvas which before showed too clearly the blotches of color now becomes blended into a much more perfect whole.

I would recommend this simple device to any one who has not already experimented with it. Thus, by adjusting our own personal equation of eyesight to that of the artist, we literally obtain his point of view. The colors are heightened, the daubs blend and new beauties appear. Instead of seeking, like our friend mentioned at first, for "the handiest way to get out of this 'ere place," we are glad to stay longer to study and to enjoy. Here, as everywhere, it is art and science together that yield the richest result. If science is allowed to be the interpreter, we may gain a heightened enjoyment of art and the artist a comforting increase of appreciation.—Lucien Howe, M. D., in Popular Science Monthly.

STAMBULOFF'S SPIRIT.

Called the Bismarck of the Balkans Because of His Courage.

The late M. Stambuloff, ex-premier of Bulgaria, used to be called "the Bismarck of the Balkans." One of his most dramatic passages with Russia occurred during the war with Servia. Prince Alexander had gone out to lead the Bulgarian army in person, leaving M. Stambuloff in charge at home. It was a clear day, with not a breath of air stirring, and the roar of the cannon was plainly heard in the city. M. Stambuloff thought the Servians were winning the day. In their anxiety the Bulgarian ministers applied to the Russian diplomatic agent for advice. That gentleman shrugged his shoulders and said it was no affair of his.

"But," urged the Bulgarian ministers, "the Servians are almost at our gates. You could stop them with a single word if you would." "Yes, but that word will not be spoken. On one condition only will I stop them, and that is that your beggar of a prince shall abdicate at once." "And that," thundered M. Stambuloff, "he will not do. No, not for 20 Russias!"

With that M. Stambuloff sprang into the saddle and dashed away to the battlefield, while the Russian agent sent to his friends to come to his house to celebrate the defeat of the Bulgarian armies. A few hours passed, and then the Bulgarian foreign minister got a telegram from M. Stambuloff, dated on the field of battle, telling of Prince Alexander's magnificent victory and of the utter rout of the Servians. He hurried with it to the house of the Russian agent, arriving there in the midst of the festivities. And when he told the news the representative of the czar is said, grabbed his hat and fled.—Westminster Budget.

Questions of Health.

The people have more than an athlete because of his athleticism, a healthy man is a man of the Masculine gender, ignorant of the fact of his existence. Irving and Stoker.

Not many know how that talented Irishman, Mr. Bram Stoker, came to be associated with the fortunes of Sir Henry Irving. It was in this wise: Sir Henry, when on a visit to Dublin, was invited to a supper party, and during the course of the evening was induced to recite in his thrilling way "The Dream of Eugene Aram." One of his auditors, a young man with a brilliant reputation at Trinity college, was so affected by the tragedian's delivery that he burst into tears. Henry Irving asked the young man to call on him the next morning, and then and there made him an offer which was accepted to the mutual advantage of both. The young man was Mr. Bram Stoker.—London Correspondent.

ROYAL TEMPLARS OF TEMPERANCE

Tenth District Meeting in Newburgh—Proceedings of Interest to the Order.

From the Newburgh Journal.

The Royal Templars of Temperance of the Tenth District, comprising the counties of Orange, Ulster and Dutchess, held their convertion in the rooms of Orange Council No. 186, in Newburgh, on Friday, Grand District Deputy J. M. Brink, of Middletown, presiding. The acting Grand Officers were Bros. Mondor, of Deerpark, Belding, of Wallkill, Brooks, of Montgomery, Ocleman, of Middletown, Schoonmaker, of Hudson River, Phillips, of Orange, Webster, of Kingston, and Sisters Remey, of Deerpark, Ulrich, of Mt. William, and Hunt, of Hudson River. The session opened at 10:30 for business.

An executive committee of one from each counsil was elected to act with the District Deputy to provide for future conventions, and a summer gathering or basket picnic recommended for the summer instead of the convention.

Strong resolutions in regard to temperance were adopted, showing that Royal Templars are taking no backward step in the matter of temperance.

An adjournment was taken at 1 o'clock for dinner at Hoag's.

The afternoon session was opened at 2:10. The Hon. L. R. Sanborn, Supreme Councilor, of Buffalo, was introduced and made a grand address. This was followed by a contest between the teams of Orange and Middletown Councils in exemplifying the Junior work.

First place was awarded to Orange Council by a very few points. The Middletown team deserves especial mention, as it is composed of nearly all children and shows what children can do in an order of this kind.

There were about fifty delegates present and all, when they left, felt that they had had a very successful convention.

A Better Half-Dollar Than the Government Makes.

A silver half-dollar, received at one of the city banks, to-day, was noticed to be a trifle thicker than others in the pile and further examination showed that it weighed fifteen grains more than those from the government mints. Tests with acid proved that the coin was of standard fineness! The counterfeiters not having rolled their sheet of silver thin enough had made their coins overweight. In all other respects the counterfeit was excellent.

Erie's Last Week Day Excursion.

The Erie will run its last week day excursion to New York, Thursday, Sept. 26th. Round trip tickets $1, good only on special train, which leaves James street at 7:54 a. m., Main street 7:56. Returning leaves New York at 7:40 p. m., giving over nine hours in the city.

Universalist Services.

Rev. J. Coleman Adams, of Brooklyn, will preach for the Universalists in Nearing Hall, next Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Dr. Adams is one of the most able pulpit orators of the present day. The public is cordially invited to hear him.

Died While Up a Nut Tree.

John Best, of Hudson, fifty years old, went nutting with his brother, yesterday, and while up a tree knocking down nuts suddenly expired. His body caught in a crotch of the tree, and was lowered to the ground with a rope.

Donation Visit to Elder Jenkins

The friends of Elder Benton Jenkins will make him their annual donation visit, at his residence, corner of Academy and Houston avenues, Thursday evening, Oct. 31. If stormy the first fair evening.

An Aged Pastor's Resignation.

Rev. Francis B. Wheeler, D D, for thirty-five years pastor of the Poughkeepsie Presbyterian Church, resigned yesterday morning. He has been over fifty years in the ministry.

Real Estate Sales

—Mr. Julius D Cheney has sold a fine dwelling which he recently erected on the E. B. Wheeler section of Richmond Hill, fronting on Wawayanda avenue, to Mr. Matson, of this city, who has taken possession.

A Reliable Remedy.

"I feel justified in saying a few words in praise of Hood's pills, because I have experienced remarkable results from their use. I cannot understand how people can expect to cure alarming and painful symptoms like headaches, heart trouble, belching, etc., by taking headache powders and heart stimulants. The only preparation which suits me in every respect, and which I therefore regard as the only reliable remedy, is Hood's pills. They have improved my physical condition wonderfully, and when I am ailing they give prompt relief by removing the cause of the trouble. Being a chemist I have analyzed them and found them uniform and consisting of only harmless vegetable matter." Aug. Overbeck, 274 Tenth avenue, New York city.

The Balance of William G. Stanton's Income to Be Applied On C. G Baldwin's Judgment.

Readers of this paper will remember that about two months ago, ex-Alderman Charles G. Baldwin, a judgment creditor of William G. Stanton, of Otsconta, through his attorneys, Vaname e, Watts & Vail, made application to Judge Brown for an order directing that a portion of the debtor's income from the estate left for him in trust by his father, the late Lewis N. Stanton, be applied to the payment of the judgment. The application was stoutly resisted by Stanton and by Peter E Palen, of Monticello, the trustee of the estate, but Judge Brown in his decree, signed Saturday, recognizes the justice of the judgment creditor's claim and makes provision for its ultimate payment. The decree is as follows: Supreme Court; O ange County:

Chas. G. Baldwin, plaintiff, against Wm. G. Stanton, individually and Peter E. Palen as sole surviving executor and trustee of the last will and testament of Lewis N. Stanton, deceased:

This cause having been tried at a Special Term of this court held at the Supreme Court rooms in the city of Newburgh, N. Y., and the court having made and filed its findings and conclusions, now it is ordered, adjudged and decreed as follows:

The plaintiff is not entitled to have any portion of the income from the estate of the said Lewis N. Stanton, deceased, applied upon the judgment referred to in the complaint except that, if the net income of said estate as shall appear from the accounts rendered and settled by the Surrogate of the county of Sullivan, upon notice to all parties interested in the income of the estate, shall in any year exceed the sum of $2,000 then the excess over $2.000 shall be paid to the plaintiff and applied upon the judgment referred to in the complaint upon an order of this court to be obtained on notice to the trustee and beneficaries.

That either of the parties hereto may at any time apply at the foot of this decree for a modification thereof.

That the entire income over and above the net sum of $2,000 each year shall be appropriated upon and applied to the payment of the judgment aforesaid as above provided.

Enter:

C. F. BROWN.

The income of the estate is now about $3,800 a year so that a handsome sum will remain to be applied, each year, on Mr. Baldwin's judgment, which amounts to about $4,500.

An Angry Wife Suspected of Incendiarism.

Mrs. James Hadcock, of Norwich, quarreled with her husband, an O. and W. employe, Thursday, and left the house. They met again Friday afternoon and had more words. Mrs. Hadcock then went to the house and came out with a bird cage. A few minutes afterwards the house was found to be on fire, and neighbors who rushed in found that two fires had been started in the parlor, one under a large chair and the other under a couch. They were soon extinguished. The general belief is that the angry wife started the fires. She has not been arrested.

Running on Two Time Cards.

Owing to the changes in the O. and W.'s new time table which went into effect, yesterday, the Crawford Branch train is again compelled to run on two time cards. On the branch the train runs on Erie time to Crawford Junction, where it must wait in the morning for O and W. train 8, and if the latter arrives on time reaches Main street eight minutes behind its schedule time. In the evening it is detained for No. 7 at Wickham avenue five minutes.

Did You Ever Think.

That you cannot be well unless you have pure, rich blood? If you are weak, tired, languid and all run down, it is because your blood is impoverished and lacks vitality. These troubles may be overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla because Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure, rich blood. It is, in truth the great blood purifier.

FOR WANT OF A PITCHER.

Middletown Badly Defeated in Saturday's Game With the Goshen Athletics.

The Goshen Athletics had sweet revenge, Saturday afternoon, when they met "Jack" Lawler's "champions" on the former's grounds. For nearly three hours the men from the "Hub" had the Middletown fielders performing the "hurdle act" over the fence which encircles the diamond, and when the game ended the score stood 25 to 7 in favor of Goshen.

Middletown was without the services of a pitcher. Bannigan and House had both promised to put in an appearance, but both failed to materialize.

While waiting for these men, Lawler was approached by an ex-trolley conductor who was in search of a job. He claimed to have pitched for a college team in his native State of Pennsylvania.

He was given a trial, but it proved disastrous. After the game was lost, Farrell tried to save it, but his arm gave out and Goshen went at him harder than they did at the "college" man. Then Lawler tried his hand with but little better results.

The teams meet again in this city, on Thursday of this week, at the Hospital Grounds.

There should be no question as to the result.

NAPOLEON,

ONCE ASKED FOR AN OPINION,

Gives a Graphic Description of His Ideal Woman. Mothers Please Note.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

In response to a question asked by a lady, the great Napoleon replied, —

"My ideal woman is not the beautiful-featured society belle, whose physician tries in vain to keep her in repair, nor the fragile butterfly of fashion, who gilds the tortures of disease with a forced smile.

"No! my ideal is a woman who has accepted her being as a sacred trust, and who obeys the laws of nature for the preservation of her body and soul.

"Do you know, my knee involuntarily bends in homage when I meet the matron who reaches middle age in complete preservation.

"That woman is rendered beautiful by perfect health, and the stalwart children by her side are her reward. That's my ideal woman."

To grow to ideal womanhood the girlhood should be carefully guarded.

Mothers owe a duty to their daughters that in too many cases is neglected.

Nature has provided a time for purification; and if the channels are obstructed the entire system is poisoned, and misery comes.

At a mothers' meeting the wife of a noted New York divine said to her listeners: "Watch carefully your daughters' physical development.

"Mothers should see that Nature is assisted if necessary, to perform its office, and keep their daughters well informed as to matters concerning themselves."

Irregularities, from whatever cause, are sure indications of organic trouble. With irregularities come disturbance of the stomach and kidneys.

Violent headaches often attack the victim; pains shoot everywhere. Extreme irritability follows quickly, and then utter despondency overwhelms the already over-burdened life. Unless the obstruction is removed at once, your daughter's whole future will be darkened. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily. It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known.

A CHILDREN'S REMEDY.

Mother Gray, a New York Nurse, Gives Middletown Mothers the Benefit of Her Experience.

There is a remedy for children's ordinary ills, known at the drug stores as Mother Gray's Sweet Worm Powders, which is very popular among Middletown mothers who have used this medicine for the past four seasons. Mother Gray, for many years a nurse in the Children's Home in New York, the originator of these powders, devoted the best years of her life to treating the many children's ailments which so often came to her notice in her capacity as a nurse. The result of her experience she has given to the world in her Mother Gray's Sweet Worm Powders. These powders are now placed in all the Middletown drug stores, and mothers everywhere use and praise them and tell other mothers about them. They cure feverishness, diarrhoea, bad stomach, headaches and all bowel troubles. They cleanse the stomach and bowels and if worms exist positively destroy them, and by cleansing the system do the child good in any event. Mothers, ask at your drug store for a 25 cent box of Mother Gray's Sweet Worm Powders, and use them in your family. They are pleasant to take and harmless as milk. A trial package will be sent free for trial to any mother who will address Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.
